Bring on the aspirin!

I carried two packages of BC headache powder around for a week and had planned to give them to Ben Waring and Inman Weeks—two Holland supporters—on Wednesday morning. To make a long story short I had to take 'em myself.

Hon. Russell O. Morrow is sitting pretty for the next term of the legislature. He went on the stump in this and neighboring counties for Spendarr L. Holland for governor. Russell always has a lucky chap and I know he will get some good committee appointments next spring when the legislature meets.

"Alex" Arnette was a happy cracker Tuesday night when the returns came in. Don Morris, editor of the Palm Beach Post, informed Alex on the steps of the Post-Times office that he had been elected. I was sitting with a few of the Post-Times staff and just won't express how happy Alex really was. He is thoroughly equipped to see through the maze of circuit clerk and has thousands of friends who will be pulling for him and a successful tenure of office.

Talk about speed, dash and accuracy! That Palm Beach Post-Times outfit just can't be beat when it comes to tabulating election returns. Just a few minutes less than two hours after the polls closed throughout the county, the loud speaker at the Post-Times office gave the consolidated results from all of the county's 39 precincts. That's what I call giving returns and giving them fast. You know that stuff and it's scattered all over the county. Don Morris and his crew of workmen really put on an election party for Palm Beach county folks.

On the back page of this newspaper you'll find the full and complete returns from all precincts in Palm Beach county. That's another little service the Post-Times furnished to this newspaper for which we are indeed grateful.

Well, another election is history and as usual I picked a lot of losers. Some of these days I want to pick a flock of winners and then I'll have something to brag about. But, by the time that happens I may be too old to do much crowing.

I'm fast learning to say: "Governor Holland!"

New Faces In Court House January 1st As Result Election

L. R. "Jack" Baker And J. A. "Alex" Arnette Are Successful

Two new faces will grace major offices in the Palm Beach county court office after the first of the year, as a result of the recent May 27th election. L. R. "Jack" Baker will succeed W. H. Lawrence as sheriff and J. A. "Alex" Arnette will take over the job of circuit clerk held for many years by Uncle George Butler. Mr. Baker won his race in the first primary on May 27th and Mr. Arnette defeated Mr. Butler in the runoff election on Tuesday of this week.

Herbert D. Beck, state representative from Belle Glade, will serve again in the 1941 session of the legislature as a result of his successful race over Gordon Vann of Pahokee in the runoff election this week. Russell O. Morrow also was elected to the legislature in this primary. Mr. Morrow, being re-elected twice without opposition.

H. L. Speer Tries A New Type Squash Finds Good Market

Experiment With A New Type Proves To Be Profitable

This spring Prof. H. L. Speer of Pahokee, decided that he would try out a new type of squash that he found advertised in seed catalogs, as being a prolific bearer of fruit of excellent quality. Results are now showing up, and all have proven correct. The new type, called "Cranberry," has found the plants of roving and rambling type, something after the pattern of the pumpkin.

The vines went out prolific bloom, and now he has a supply of fruit sufficient to feed Pahokee if distributed there. The fruit is a good size, dark green in color, and in very much like a small Hubbard squash, both as to flavor and appearance, the fruit running from 2 to 3 pounds or more in weight.

Two Airmen Lose Way In The Glades

It took two air men from Miami six hours to work their way out of the west end of the Everglades south of the Brown farms. Sunday, before they struck the course of the Hillsboro canal. The men had been on a Glades inspection trip and after leaving Belle Glade their plane became disabled, forcing them to make a wilderness landing. A D. D. W. mechanic and L. E. Burnett, pilot, escaped injury, but their badly disabled plane was later returned to Miami by truck.

Survey Big Lake As Possible Base For Uncle Sam's Planes

Lake Okeechobee may or may not be selected as an army plane base, but anyway an official made an inspection of the lake last week, at the orders of the Department. Much data concerning a base has already been collected by Port of Palm Beach Commissioners and city officials of Pahokee, which was presented and considered when the air base project was up some months ago, finally resulting in this selection of Jacksonville and the Bama river as the sites.

This wide fresh water lake, a superb location, and many advantages for an inland air plane base, Congressman Pat Cannon has been leading every effort to land this auxiliary base for his Fourth Congressional district, as well as a similar project for the Lake Worth area.

THE FUTURE LOOKS BRIGHT

There is an old saying about "Behind every cloud there is a silver lining" and it surely looks like the old saying is correct, especially when it comes to some of the products of this immediate season.

Last winter, when we had "that cold snap" and when many were tucking their heads under their wing and moaning about how this end of the country was surely going to the dogs, everything was frozen and there would be nothing doing in those parts for at least two years to come; especially with limes, avocados and a few other of the citrus fruits and that there was no use in trying to go ahead, etc. and so.

Now comes the silver lining. Those who will have Persian Limes and avocados to sell this season are certainly sitting pretty and it is just about the same as having money in the bank or in the event the Persian lime crop is large enough to average it would then be just about the same as owning the bank.

Citrus fruits further up the state were badly damaged by the freeze and many communities further north will have fewer limes nor much of anything else to sell

... all of which means that the prices are hopping and continue to hop. Right now and here in Homestead Persian limes are selling at 40c per dozen and hard to get at that. The new crop will not be on the market for several weeks yet but in the meantime those who have a nice crop ripening on the tree are beginning to look around and noting what a wonderful place this section of the country happens to be. Better yet the Persian lime crop looks good in this immediate section.

SHORTER BALLOT NEEDED

Polling place congestion can and must be prevented in the future without weakening any of the invaluable safeguards which Hillsborough county citizens have thrown around the honesty of their elections. Fewer races in the second primary will prevent congestion May 28.

The county commissioners' discussion of problems arising in last week's voting is a reflection of popular demand for action. The next legislature can and should reduce the length of the first primary ballot by at least one-third by eliminating the meaningless four races for presidential electors and by reducing the number of races at the end of the ballot to a maximum of three, with these three made to mean something by providing for a clear-cut statement of national issues.

The Florida Legislature can help most by vigorously supporting the public demand on the next legislature for a revision of primary laws to shorten the ballot and enable Floridians to show just where they stand on national issues. —Tampa Times.

Too Late TO CLASSIFY

By Russell Kay

It has been a tough two weeks for those candidate in the run-off, confronted with the problem of arousing public alarm over matters of local import in competition, with fast moving world events, account of which have monopolized our front pages and dominated the air waves.

The plight of our old folks and the matter of a few thousand dependent children seems of little consequence when we contrast it with millions of refugees whose homes are in ashes and vast armies trapped, awaiting slaughter.

Of even greater import is the matter of our own position in relation to what has happened and is happening in Europe, and we find the average American citizen today viewing with much more alarm the plight of Democracy than such trivial questions as diversion of the gas tax or claim store domination.

And so as this is written we stand on the eve of a second primary election to determine who shall hold this or that office. While normally such elections might be expected to arouse local interest, they are so overshadowed by world events as to make them seem of little consequence.

Floridians in particular have reason to be concerned over the type of affairs in Europe for this state, because of its geographical location, is in a most precarious position in relation to the national defense. Closest of all states to the Panama Canal and to the island possessions of involved powers located in the Caribbean, we may well ask what the future holds for us.

At Tampa, Jacksonville, Cocoa, Miami, Pensacola and Key West, we see the feverish activity of army and navy officials as they rush plans for the establishment of military bases that should have been set up long ago.

The hum of flying fortresses and pursuit planes drones in Florida skies as youthful pilots are put through their paces. The offshore the casual observer may glimpse the grim gray shapes of prowling battle craft assigned to patrol duty in our waters.

In spite of the fact that seems temporarily separate us from the scene of conflict, the thoughtful citizen no longer finds that fact very comforting, particularly since the fate of British, Dutch and French possessions in the doorway remain in doubt and the possibility of the immediate establishment of naval and air bases in these islands by our adversary power becomes a possibility.

It is indeed a time for clear thinking and straight talking, and Florida has a right to look to the delegations in Congress and their leaders at home for action that will insure protection of our state and its people.

Today our principal allies, most of which harbor military objectives, stand without a word. There are few, if any, anti-aircraft guns in the state, and should the enemy decide to attack, we should find ourselves practically defenseless, dependent wholly upon our naval forces and aviation units to ward off

 Beach, which was most acceptable in view of the fact that the military activities without our borders be in line of the first blow which is in the air. We should receive first consideration from our federal government in the matter of providing every possible means of defense, and it is the duty of Florida senators and representatives, as well as of our Governor, to do everything in their power to see that we receive such consideration without further delay.

The thought of our children wearing gas masks and fleeing for the protection of bomb shelters is not a pleasant one, even more grim and terrible is the vision of what could happen if we continue to sit idly by, making no effort at defense or protection, absolutely at the march of the first ruthless attack that may be directed at us.

Florida should look to the future and look NOW. Not hysterically, or with undue alarm, but rather as a people intelligent enough to recognize the facts and take the necessary steps that preparedness demands.

CCC Will Enroll 1800 Young Men

Jacksonville, May 30. — During the period July 1-20 Florida will enroll 1,800 young men for the Civilian Conservation Corps, according to announcement here today by the State Welfare Board. The enrollment, while large, is no larger than that of October, 1939, it was announced by Jack Hoke, representative of the State Welfare Board in charge of selection. The large enrollment, Hoke said, was due to a reduction of the previous quota because of the failure of Congress to authorize a large appropriation as formerly. The cut was later restored.

CCC enrollees are in no sense "enlisted" for military service. Hoke pointed out, their status being strictly that of civilians, as the name of the Corps implies. "Should the United States enter war the status of CCC enrollees would be exactly the same as that of other young men of their age," Hoke asserted.

"They would by no more subject to draft than any of their friends and brothers back home," and if recruiting should be authorized would have the same privilege.

Young people between the ages of 18 and 25, who are out of school and unemployed, can be considered for the out of school program. Bruce Decker, Jr., representative for the Miami area, will be at Belle Glade every Friday from 9:30 until noon to receive applications (then, and at Pahokee from 1:30 to 4:00, the same day for like purpose. Mr. Decker will be found at the State Welfare Board office in these places.

"A Suggested Program For Conserving And Utilizing The Natural Resources of Our Farm"

BY DAN BEARDSLEY
PAHOKEE HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR

In one of the richest farming areas of the world, on the shores of the Lake Okeechobee, we can find our farm of 438 acres. All of this land is classified as Muck, suitable for growing many different crops. We have found, through several years of experience, that we have planted many shade and fruit trees in and around our yard and are encouraging these saplings to stay with us in every way possible. A few years ago we attempted to stock this farm with quail. We fed four pairs of quail and for a while it seemed they were thriving well, but they have finally disappeared. There are also some game fowl that stay in a lagoon near our house. This lagoon was made when the dike was built around Lake Okeechobee and it makes an ideal place for ducks and geese to winter. We have prohibited shooting of these fowls at all times in order that they might have some place to feed and be free of hunters.

This lagoon also is an ideal place for a fish pond. There are many things which could be done to promote the breeding of fish in this pond. First, the lagoon should be fenced and all non-edible fish removed. Next, an adequate food supply should be made available to the fish. Then some fingerling bass and other useful breeds of fish should be obtained and placed in the lagoon for propagation. By utilizing this pond we would assure ourselves of plenty of sport and good eating and would also preserve our wild life.

There has always been a decided lack of natural scenery on our farm due to the many floods and hurricanes that have occurred in past years. About the best plant that grows in the kysatch. This is a great hindrance to drainage and irrigation, and to propagate it would be very impractical. We have planted many trees and shrubs which help to beautify our home and farm. One suggestion I would make concerning this beautification program would be to remove some of the more common plants and shrubs and plant others that would add beauty and rarity in their places. Another suggestion would be to plant water lilies and Egyptian lotus in the lagoon. This would beautify immensely this otherwise bare looking place, and also help make a refuge for game fowl.

The Federal Government has aided us very greatly in paying us for planting cover crops. The aid which is given us helps defray expenses for planting these soil building crops. I think it would be possible to gain government aid in procuring fingerling bass with which we could stock our pond. The benefits derived from such a program as the government has provided for us would be infinite.

By the use of cover crops, a better drainage and irrigation system, the restoration and encouragement of wild life, beautification of the home grounds, and the use of Federal aid, I am convinced that this farm would be more progressive and profitable and a better place on which to live. I am certain that these suggestions could be carried out without interfering with the regular farming program.

Only six acres of our farm is in permanent pasture. Of this six acres at least one acre is planted in some feed crop every year. The rest is completely covered with grass and soil building plants. The manure from the stock helps very greatly in keeping the soil from depleting. However, this land, being so close to water, can use some other fertilizer to help build up the food material in the grass. I would suggest broadcast-sowing some commercial fertilizer on the pasture land to increase the tonnage of grass.

Drainage was, until recently one of the biggest problems to cope with on our farm. It is still a major item, but is less important than many others. In the past few years we have ditched practically all of our land, thus making the control of excess water by the drainage district pump much easier.

Another major factor in raising crops on our farm is the use of irrigation. Until recently we had not used irrigation to any extent. Now we have learned from data compiled by the Everglades Experimental Station, that muck soil will oxidize and subside if the water table is not kept at a height sufficient for the soil to absorb all the water it needs. We have a small reversible pump which we use to help raise or lower the water table. To completely control the water during dry weather or flood more pumps are necessary.

The only suggestion I would make would be to cross ditch certain fields and to buy "table pump" so that the water table could be easily controlled.

It would have been rather impractical to preserve the carnivorous and herbivorous wild life on our farm, for land is too valuable to be used as a refuge for wild life. However, one valuable asset to our farm, or any other farm, would be a well-stocked bird and animal collection.

St. Augustine, May 30. (PNS) — An August 1st new inlet from the Atlantic Ocean to Manatee Bay was officially opened last week, and its value to commercial boats was ably demonstrated when the fishing smack "Flex," the first to use the pass, entered leaving the open Atlantic. The trip previously required three hours.

more" is at present 1,600 feet offshore in the Atlantic removing a dangerous shoal which will materially aid boats in navigating the channel.

Plans also call for a jetty to extend about 1,000 feet out to protect the channel from shifting sands of the ocean.

Alexander Graham Bell's First Telephone

From this crude Beginning

... the telephone has become a world-wide medium of voice communication... a dependable service, available at low cost, to people in all walks of life. This remarkable achievement is the result of American initiative, organization and ingenuity.

The 21,500 Southern Bell workers have had an important part in this achievement. It is a source of satisfaction to us to know that they, together with thousands of other Bell System workers, have made it possible for anyone today using a Bell or Bell connected telephone to talk to almost any point in America, many foreign countries, and to ships at sea.

Americans enjoy the best, most dependable and cheapest telephone service in the world. They are assured of its continuance, because it is the Company's policy to keep telephone facilities and quality of service ahead of public expectation.

Masons Enjoy Excellent Meeting

While the meeting of Everglades Lodge, No. 211, F. and A. M., was slated as a regular communication, yet it turned out to be a district rally, as all lodges of the 22nd district except Ft. Pierce and Boynton, had delegations in attendance, a week ago Tuesday night.

It was with much pleasure that the membership learned that Worshipful Grand Master Smith L. Turner, had continued his trip to his duty for the 22nd district; a position he has held under two previous grand masters. Deputy Linderman was present at the convocation, and informed the lodge of some of the desires of the new Grand Master, which included the placing of Home Children in homes for the summer vacation period. A number of the kiddies will be received in the homes of this district.

The third degree was excellently exemplified by the Everglades lodge staff for three candidates.

and the lecture of the evening was masterfully delivered by illustrious Brother Ray Young, of Miami lodge.

Mrs. Bailey Named Club President

The new Woman's Club building at Pahokee, last Monday afternoon was most attractively decorated for the occasion of the annual installation of officers, which was in charge of Mrs. A. H. Dalton as installing officer. The attendance was considerably larger than usual. The new officers installed were President, Mrs. C. A. Bailey, vice-president, Mrs. G. M. Bales and Mrs. A. Q. Howell; corresponding secretary, Mrs. John M. Gledhill; treasurer, Mrs. D. W. Cunningham; editor, Mrs. J. J. Barwick; parliamentarian, Mrs. J. R. York. The retiring president, Mrs. Henry Brooker and the incoming president, Mrs. C. A. Bailey, were presented with flowers, and each officer with a pretty corsage.

Mrs. John Gledhill brought a review of the district convention held at Lake Worth recently to the attention of the membership, stating that the main project for the county organization for the coming year would be to secure the planting of Australian pine on Route 25, from Twenty mile bend to Six mile bend near Belle Glade.

A rummage sale, for this Friday, was arranged and same will be in charge of the committee composed of Mesdames Minnie L. Hughes, W. D. Larrimore, Henry Brooker and Charles Scott.

Mrs. H. B. Baxter, as spokesman for a group of younger set of mothers of Pahokee, asked the club to sponsor and assist in the forming of an auxiliary. Junior club, as there was a demand for such an organization. The matter was taken under advisement and a committee composed of Mrs. Barwick, Mrs. York and Mrs. Schroder was named to act as an advisory committee on this matter.

It was reported by the treasurer, Mrs. Barwick, that during the year, the club had secured a $2500 loan and has built and equipped new club house and that the receipts from all sources for the year had been $1063.41.

A proposition was made that a musical department be established in the club the coming year, as one of the projects, and this will likely be worked out. Mrs. Brooker, who will be chairman of the Fine Arts committee this year, has an objective, the securing and paying for a new piano for the club house rooms.

The new president, Mrs. Bailey, named the chairman for the year's standing committees as follows: finance, Mrs. J. E. Cochran; welfare, Mrs. B. J. Barwick; civic and conservation, Mrs. H. Elliott; Christmas program, Mrs. J. E. Cochran, Jr.; social, Mrs. Thomas Elliott; Christmas program, Mrs. John DeLong; publicity, Mrs. Earl Hughes; the First Baptist Church, Mrs. Minnie; citizenship, Mrs. Minnie; Calhoun; Fine Arts, Mrs. Henry Brooker; resolutions, Mrs. Minnie Hughes; the American honor, Mrs. Browning Barwick; education, Mrs. J. R. York; literature, Mrs. A. H. Dalton.

The program entertainment of the afternoon was presented by vocal and piano students of Mrs. Charles Scott, with Charles Crowl, Jr. and Flora Weeks appearing in piano numbers; Mrs. George Sartoris and Mrs. Thaddeus Whidden in vocal selections, all of whom committee served refreshments at the conclusion of the club session.
